

House Rules for the Refugee Accommodation Facility

1. General

These house rules are intended to ensure respectful coexistence among all residents and to maintain order, safety, and cleanliness within the accommodation facility.

Every resident is required to comply with these rules.

2. Quiet Hours

- Nighttime quiet hours: 10:00 p.m. – 6:00 a.m.
- During this time, loud conversations, music, or other disturbing noises must be avoided.
- Residents are also expected to be considerate of others during daytime hours.

3. Cleanliness and Hygiene

- Common areas (kitchen, bathrooms, hallways) must be left clean after use.
- Waste must be disposed of regularly in the designated containers.
- Personal rooms must be kept clean and ventilated regularly.
- Food must not be stored uncovered (to prevent pests).

4. Use of Common Areas

- Kitchens, bathrooms, and common rooms are available for use by all residents.
- Usage schedules and cleaning plans, where applicable, must be followed.
- Any damage or excessive dirtiness must be reported immediately.

5. Safety

- Open flames (e.g., candles) are prohibited.
- Electrical appliances may only be used with prior approval.
- Emergency exits, including stairways, must remain clear at all times.
- Doors and windows must be closed when leaving the building.

6. Visitors

- Visitors are permitted only between 8:00 a.m. and 10:00 p.m.
- Overnight stays by visitors are allowed only with prior authorization.
- Residents are responsible for the conduct of their visitors.

7. Alcohol, Drugs, and Violence

- The use of illegal drugs is strictly prohibited.
- Alcohol consumption is permitted only in moderation.
- Violence, threats, or insults will not be tolerated.

8. Noise and Consideration

- Music and television must be kept at room volume.
- Conversations in hallways and common areas should be conducted quietly.
- Children under the age of 10 must be supervised.

9. Use of the Courtyard

- The courtyard may be used by children for playing.
- Parents or legal guardians are responsible for supervising their children.
- Residents must be considerate of others, especially during quiet hours.
- The courtyard must be kept clean.
- Barbecuing in the courtyard is permitted on an occasional basis; however, consideration must be given to neighbors. Charcoal must be disposed of properly.

10. Respect and Tolerance

- People of different backgrounds, religions, and cultures live in this accommodation facility.
- Respectful, tolerant, and friendly behavior toward one another is mandatory.
- Discrimination, insults, or exclusion will not be tolerated.
- Conflicts should be resolved peacefully and, where possible, with the support of staff.

11. Damage and Liability

- Any damage to the accommodation facility must be reported immediately.
- Individuals are liable for any damage they cause.

12. Instructions from Staff

- Residents must comply with instructions given by the support staff.
- Residents may contact staff at any time with questions or concerns.

13. Violations of the House Rules

- Violations will be reviewed and may result in a fine.
- Repeated or serious violations may lead to further measures (e.g., exclusion from the facility or notification of the authorities).

14. Final Provision

These house rules shall enter into force on _____.
